Legislative Update

Susan Edwards gave an update on the Legislative Session 2014. The state budget will be voted on tomorrow, (March 7, 2017). The County-wide equalization is still being discussed along with a bill which would give 85% of the budget to principals to oversee, and 15% of the budget to the district to administer.

Other items discussed:

- The SCC requested Dating Safety and Zero Fatality be added to the school's "Wellness Week".
- Time Capsule: Picture of the SCC will be taken next meeting to be put in the capsule.
- 2014-2015 School Calendars were handed out to the SCC.

Kimberly Miller made the motion to adjourn. The motion was seconded by Kathy Cutler.

Meeting was adjourned at 9:05 pm
